Village Trustees to Go to State Convention of I. M. L. at Springfield

Regular Meeting Postponed From Monday to Next Thursday Night

Because village board members will attend the annual meeting of the Illinois Municipal League at Springfield Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, the regular meeting of the board has been deferred to Thursday night.

Monday is the regular meeting date.

All members of the board with the exception of Clerk L. D. Powles will attend the Springfield convention. Because a reservation for Powles was already made, Mrs. Dalgard will accompany her husband, Trustee Winsor Dalgard, in his place.

The convention is expected to take up many matters of vital interest to towns and villages, and among them will be the request for legislation giving them a share of the sales tax money collected by the state. Gov. Dwight Green came out in opposition to that plan this week.

President George Bartlett said that no plans were made to attend the tri-county division meeting of the league set originally for this week and then postponed. The meeting will be at Oak Park, Ill.

Sequoits to Open Season of Conference Play in Tilt Against Bensenville

Antioch High's football team will open its conference season here tomorrow night under the lights against Bensenville, one of the top notch teams of the circuit.

With three backfield men out of play Coach Maurice Kruzan is not optimistic over winning this game. "I'm praying for rain so that most of our playing can be in the middle of the field," he said.

Thompson and January will play at halfback positions in the place of Kraft, Mattson and Tom Poulos. Kraft is ill and the other two regulars have injured feet.

The Sequoits lost the opportunity to get over into the victory column last Friday when they provided the two necessary breaks that allowed Grayslake to score. The points were all in Antioch's favor as to yardage gained, and kicking.

The first quarter was a tie 6-6, the half was 12 to 6 in Antioch's favor and the visitors took the lead in the third quarter 13 to 12 and maintained it in the fourth quarter although the Sequoits had marched down the field to the shadow of the goal posts when the final whistle blew.

Kruzan said he would have a regular lineup in the homecoming game the following week in playing Northbrook.

Following tomorrow night's game the Junior class will stage a dance in the high school gymnasium.

Lake Villa Church Will Start Improvement Drive Tuesday to Raise $5,000

The Improvement Campaign of the Lake Villa Community church will start on Tuesday, Oct. 7 when a letter will be sent to all residents of the Lake Villa community asking subscriptions.

The trustees announce they hope to raise $5,000 which will adequately cover the cost of needed improvements. The improvements, in addition to a new furnace, include a completely new chancel arrangement in which natural oak plywood will be used for an altar and background.

New wall paneling will also be placed in the sanctuary because the plaster is too cracked to be repainted. New lights also will be placed in the sanctuary.

To make a more comfortable meeting place for the church school, the basement will be redecorated with new wall paneling and celotex floor panels. A tile floor will also be laid upon the concrete.

Rev. Dwight Dixon said the trustees were hoping for a good response. Gifts are accepted at the Lake Villa Trust and Savings bank.

Chicago Sues Merchant
Enright, a Chicago resident, filed suit in circuit court against William H. Molter, proprietor of a restaurant and bar at Cox's corners on Rte. 173, for $100,000 damages for injuries sustained July 7 when, according to Enright, a stool toppled over striking him to the floor.

Driver Jailed In Crash on 173 Wed.

Leon Dancel, 51, of Northwestern Military Academy, Lake Geneva, was jailed yesterday after an automobile crash at 8 p. m. on route 173, one half mile east of route 21. Dancel was driving east in a 1941 Ford coupe when he suddenly swerved into the opposite lane causing a head-on crash with a Plymouth sedan driven by Sidney Dibble of Grub Hill road.

Dancel was the only person injured, suffering a cut lip. A passenger in his car, Mrs. M. Edwards of 3629 N. Ashland Avenue, Chicago, was not hurt.

Dibble was alone at the time of the accident and was unhurt other than being shaken up.

The front parts of both cars were badly damaged.

A sheriff's squad picked up Dancel at the scene and he was jailed on a charge of intoxicated driving. He is still in jail today.

"Chickie" Again Rules as Speediest Craft in Chain O' Lakes Region

Buelow's "Chickie" again is the cock-o-the-walk in boat racing circles in the Chain O' Lakes region by virtue of her victory last Sunday in the Commodore's race at the Yacht Club Bohemia.

The Viking, her nearest competitor among the 16 boats that battled for the Hollenbach Special award of a $500 trophy, failed and did not finish the race. The "Chickie's" time was 7 minutes 14 seconds for the eight-mile race.

The results of the races for the Commodore trophies were:

Al Albrecht's "Sunset Lark," in the 75-horse power class.
Stanley Stupner's "Feryle Turtle" in the 95 hp class.
Fred Stehmer's "Miss Ann" in the 121 hp class.
Eddie Zender's Hex in the E-2 class.

Pack Train Trip Planned For Senior Boy Scouts

A two thousand mile trip by air to New Mexico, a 25 day pack train trip through the mountains, a stay at the great Philmont Scout ranch—that's the Senior Scout adventure planned for next August by Scout executives of the Chicago Suburban Area at a recent meeting. The entire cost of the trip will be approximately $100. In view of the fact that Philmont Scout ranch is used by Scout Councils all over America, it will be necessary for Scouts who will be fifteen years of age and over by August 1, 1948 to file their applications with the Scout office as soon as possible.

Only a few Scouts from the North Shore Area Council can be accepted for the trip planned but if there is sufficient demand another similar trip can be arranged.

High Scores Hung Up In Third Week Of League Bowling

With keglers at Antioch recreation getting into mid-season form after three sessions of league bowling, some very good scores were rolled during the past week.

High team series for the Tavern league was rolled Monday evening when Joe and Helen's shot games of 947-853-912 for a total of 2712. The 947 game is high for the league. The games rolled Monday put Joe and Helen's into a three way tie for leadership of the league, with Thompson's and Thor's Club Villa sharing the honor. Rudy Strametz holds high series for the league with a 601 series, and Bill Dunworth shot the high single game with a 244, Chas. Kempf has second in this division with a 238.

Ladies Handicap League
Eherhardt's leads the league with seven wins and two losses, followed by Club Villa with six wins and three losses. Pickard China, Pagels, Chain O' Lakes cleaners and Regal Chain are in a four-way tie for third place in the league. High games and series for last Tuesday evening were rolled by Dorothy Ferris with a 496 series, and E. Flint rolled a 509 series, with one game of 211.

Wednesday Business Men's League
High standings for the league include—High series, Miller's Insurance, 2507; Louie and Ed, 2469; Golden Glo, 2352. High team games scores are held by the same three teams with Miller's high with 908; Louie and Ed second with 857; and Golden Glo third with 838.

Thursday Night Business Men's
Salem Business Men took all three games from Carey Electric. Henry Greve had high series of 532 with a (Continued on page 5)

Green Exceeds Budget, Bringing State Spending Power to All-Time High

Final figures show that the state government of Illinois can spend almost 40 per cent more during the next two years than it could have during 1945-1947.

It was also indicated that the Governor's estimated operating budget of $822,164,160 was exceeded by $49,175,440. This brings the state spending power for the next two years to a total of $871,339,600, an all-time high.

These facts were contained in a detailed analysis of state appropriations published in the Illinois Taxpayer, a publication of the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois.

The largest single item in this "Over the Budget" figure was an increase of $11,000,000 appropriated for aid to dependent children. Second came $10,339,000 for grants to local schools.

Department Costs Up

Increased costs for the operation of various departments amounted to more than $15,000,000 which comes from the so-called general fund. Major items going to make up this sum included $3,983,200 for the Department of Finance to be used for post-war community planning and public works programs. Next in this group of figures in excess of the budget comes $2,937,500 which was allocated to the military and naval department for state armories. In these same upper brackets will be found $2,220,000 appropriated to the Department of Revenue for the administration of the new city sales tax act passed by the last General Assembly.

In the opinion of George E. Mahin, Executive Secretary of the Federation, it is quite likely that little if any of this latter sum will be spent as there is small likelihood that many cities will avail themselves of this new revenue raising measure.

Buy Chicago Building

It can cost the taxpayers of Illinois $1,977,700 to erect a power plant and dig tunnels connecting various State Capitol buildings and $1,860,000 for the operation and repairs to the Burnham Building in Chicago, which was recently acquired by the state to house its Chicago agencies.

One of the bills passed at the last assembly and which created state-wide discussion, was the legislature's pensions system which brought an increase in the budget of $35,000. This bill was allowed to become a law without the Governor's signature.

To give a face-lifting to the State Fairgrounds and to erect new buildings $5,154,307 was appropriated.

More Taxes Expected

In addition to these excesses over Governor's operating budget there was $98,112,292 appropriated for new buildings for the state and for repairs, as well as $15,000,000 for improvement of secondary and feeder roads with $23,975,730 for deficiencies and emergencies. The grand total appropriated by the General Assembly amounted to $1,008,427,622.

"If the amounts appropriated are spent and if the state income estimates of the Governor for the next two years are correct, it will be necessary to dig into the state surplus to the extent of $189,475,808, leaving the next General Assembly with but $2,280,537 in reserve. This could well mean newer taxes and more taxes," Mr. Mahin concluded.

Hebron Man Injured When Tractor Uptops Upon Him

The little girls enjoyed an afternoon of games followed with a luncheon which included a large birthday cake decorated with four candles. Colored pictures were taken of the group by Tami's aunt, Mrs. Jack Tinker, of Kenosha. Tami received many lovely gifts from the group.

Antioch Man to Start Theatre at Round Lake

While Fox Lake citizens complained because the housing expediter will not let one of their business men erect a much needed theatre there, Round Lake announced this week that William Lempke of Antioch had purchased land there to start a new theatre.

Lempke was said to have purchased property in the east part of the village to put up an $80,000 building that will seat 700 persons. He owns the Lakes theatre in Antioch.

F. S. Pavitt publisher of Fox Lake has charged that theatre owners at Libertyville and McHenry are blocking the starting of a theatre in his village and calls it a matter of politics and selfish business interests. Fox Lake is without a theatre.

Allan Geibel, 17, Loses Right Foot in Blades of Silo Filling Machine

Allan Geibel, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. August Geibel of State Line rd., one mile east of Antioch is making satisfactory recovery at Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan from the loss of his right foot in the whirling blades of a silo filling machine last Thursday afternoon.

The boy and his father were filling a silo and Mr. Geibel had gone into the silo to change the chute at the time of the accident. When the machine became clogged Allan shut off the power and thinking the machine had stopped, kicked off the safety guards and in doing so lost his balance and stepped into the revolving blades which had not yet come to a complete stop. There was enough power left to mangle his lower leg.

The father assisted by a local dairyman applied tourniquets which stopped the flow of blood until the boy could be taken by the rescue squad to the hospital. The leg was amputated seven inches below the knee.

Allan, a freshman last year in the Antioch High school, had been working on the farm of 220 acres leased by his father, and planned to study welding this winter before going into the hay baling business next year. As a member of the Future Farmers of America, Allan won two grand championships and two first places with his Swiss heifer at the Antioch fair this fall.

Antioch Will Observe Fire Prevention Week From October 5 to 11

Fire Department Will Inspect Schools and Business Buildings Then

Fire Prevention week will be observed in Antioch from Oct. 5 to 11 inclusive.

During that week the Antioch fire department inspectors will make an inspection of schools, public and business buildings to see that fire hazards are eliminated.

The special week has been declared through proclamation by Gov. Dwight H. Green, who has asked that enforcement of fire laws and codes be observed.

"If ordinances are not adequate, they should be made adequate," said Gov. Green.

Governor Asks Education

The governor asked that school children be educated along the lines of fire prevention.

John H. Graig, fire marshal directed attention to the fact that Illinois fire losses reached an all time high record in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947. In the area outside of Chicago the property loss was $19,251,630.

Could Happen To You

"Don't be too complacent about fire. It could happen to you," warned Graig. "The fellow who fell asleep smoking a cigarette in bed did not expect to burn a hotel, costing his own and many other lives. His counterpart, who tossed a live cigarette out of a car into dry grass did not expect to set a stockyard afire."

Graig directed attention to many kinds of carelessness that cause fires. They include use of gasoline in cleaning, use of kerosene in starting fires, using electric cords that are frayed, use of pennies for wire plugs, allowing furnaces to get out of repair and then firing them heavily, and allowing waste to accumulate.

Education for Disaster

A recent survey made by Dr. Henry C. Link of the Psychological Corporation indicates that an appalling number of American people actually believe that this country would be better off if the government owned and managed basic industry. And, when a poll was taken of college students, a substantial majority voted in favor of socialization of industry and the destruction of private enterprise.

As the Charlotte, North Carolina, Observer put it, "Our college students must be miseducated if, after four years in an institution supported by free enterprise, they turn against the very system that made their education possible. These students, 63 per cent of whom believe that government ownership is more efficient than private enterprise, could not for the life of them cite a single instance to prove their point."

The Observer goes on to list examples that completely refute the theory that socialism is efficient. The British coal mines, whose socialization was supposed to be a key move to revive British industry, are producing much less than they did under their former owners. The European railroads, which are almost entirely government owned, are primitive in the extreme when compared with the American lines. The American electric industry, under business-management, leads its socialized foreign equivalents by an enormous margin, judged by cost and abundance of service, or any other yardstick. So it goes, in every field of endeavor.

The socialized state always becomes a slave state. A recent government report estimates that the Russian worker's wages will buy only about ten per cent as much as the American worker can buy. That is typical of all totalitarian governments. Even if socialism were mechanically efficient, which it is not, its gravest danger would still lie in the fact that it abhors freedom as nature abhors a vacuum.

The kind of education which teaches that socialism, communism or any other form of dictatorship is superior to the American system, is education for disaster. The Link survey proves that this country needs not only more education, but accurate education that aggressively tells the young how freedom was won in this country, and what must be done to preserve it.

Position of Railroad Labor

If approved, the demands of seventeen non-operating railway unions for a twenty cent per hour boost, will result in "serious injury to the public interest through rate and price increases." That statement was made by counsel for the nation's railroads before the six-man arbitration board which is hearing the evidence.

This is the third major wage increase demanded by railway unions in little more than a year. At present, railroad labor is in a highly preferred position. Interstate Commerce Commission statistics show that railroad employees receive an all-time-high average weekly wage of $50.30. That is $10 in excess of the average of all productive workers as compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. It is $6 more than the average for employees in a select group of twenty-five industries reported by the National Industrial Conference Board. In addition, railroad labor receives many benefits not enjoyed by workers in other industries, including substantially greater social security privileges.

The railroad industry has been forced to petition for rate increases to offset the tremendous increases in operating expenses that have already taken place. Their petition, along with the mass of statistical data entered to support it, is based upon current costs. Should wages or any other major operating expense take a further jump, still greater rate increases would become unavoidable, to the detriment of every business, every consumer, and every worker as well, including railroad men.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

How to prevent our Congressmen from getting cold, or limber, or shifty feet soon as they cross the bridge into old Spendville-town, is our number one problem. Here at home they tell us they are going down and pound the desk and cut expenses. Nice fellows too, lots of 'em are. But once down there a near-by buddy will crook his finger and say, "Come now, pardner, you know your town would like a new bowling green or landing field or bigger free lunches in the school house, or something." Well, maybe they might, the new man says. Sure they do, the oldtimer says. But, he says, to get same for you, you gotta help me get a couple new dams and swimming pools over on Salt Creek in my district. Your new man wavers. And to make blunt talk—he got into office under false pretenses. He had no vertebrae in the first place.

How will we start to fix it, says Henry. Well, I says, there are folks down there in Congress who could be used as a good example for your man. You take persons like Mr. Byrd, and Mr. Bricker, and Mr. George, and Mr. Taber—you don't ogle them. You don't get them off the beam with clamor or promised glamor. Tell your new man to copy these gents—display some stamina, stick by his convictions—get expenses down, or your vote next time is gonna be for the other guy. Yours with the low down, JO SERRA

Next Sunday is World wide communion Sunday and will be so observed at the Community church. Rev. Dixon's sermon topic is "I Believe," the first of a series of eight sermons concerning the beliefs of Christians. You are invited to join in the services.

The Official Board of the Community church will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Boyer at their home Friday evening this week.

The pupils of the church school put on the annual Rally Day program at the church last Sunday evening. The little folks gave songs and recitations and eight girls from the upper grades presented a comedy "How the Story Grew," showing how easy it is for a story to grow into something entirely different. Rev. Dixon directed the play.

The Royal Neighbors met in regular session at the Village hall on Tuesday evening and after the business session enjoyed a social hour with Marie Hamlin and Cecil Blumenschein as hostesses.

Mrs. Walter Sorenson, of East Shore Gardens, who has been in Condell hospital since her automobile accident is recovering after having skin grafting done last week.

Mrs. Anna Nader returned home last week after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Almquist and family at Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rhodes are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, 8½ lbs., at Condell hospital early last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Mabel Baker, of Evanston, was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Blumenschein last Sunday.

Mrs. Olga Murphy, wife of Mike Murphy, passed away at her home north of the village early Sunday morning after an illness of several months. Her husband and a daughter, Mrs. Edith Gerber are left to mourn her passing. Another daughter, Virginia, preceded her in death a year or so ago.

Mrs. Lulu Nelson and granddaughter, Carlene Ekdahl, went to Chicago on Friday afternoon and remained until Sunday with Mrs. Nelson's cousin, Miss Eula McCracken. Mrs. Nelson returned Tuesday, but Carlene returned Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wagner, Jr., are receiving congratulations on the birth of their fourth child and second son at Condell hospital on Thursday, Sept. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hooper, their daughter, Mrs. Ed Langbein and daughter, Sharon, did shopping in Chicago on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Traver Ellis and sons of Belvidere, Ill., spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Ellis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hooper.

Al Boehm left Sunday morning to spend two weeks in northern Wis., where fishing is fine. Two friends from Libertyville accompanied him.

Jack Effinger, of Antioch, and Wm. Hook, of Lake Villa, are with John Effinger on his trip in the North.

Mrs. Stella Pedersen was guest of Mrs. Kate Manzer and daughter, Mrs. Al Boehm, at their home near Wedge's Corners last Sunday.

On Sunday, two weeks ago, Mrs. Martha Daube, was pleasantly surprised by a visit from a cousin, Fred Hansen, of Seattle, Wash., and a week later, another cousin, Herman Albert and wife, also of Seattle, Wash., came to spend the day. A cousin from Chicago, Clarence Hansen, came out with them and Mrs. Daube's daughter, Mrs. Ed Hogle, and Mrs. Arthur Sams, of Waukegan, with their husbands, were part of the family party. Mrs. Daube's other daughter, Mrs. Wm. Gallagher and family, who live at the Daube home, completed the family party.

The ladies of the Sewing club enjoyed a luncheon and a social afternoon last Thursday with Mrs. Paul Avery, Jr.

A number of the Boy Scouts accompanied by their leader, David Schrum, went Saturday in the school bus to see the football game in Chicago.

A very important part of the Rally Day program last Sunday evening was the presentation of awards for 3 months, 6 months and a year attendance by Delbert Sherwood, Supt. of S. S., and presentation of diplomas for transfer to high classes by the pastor, Rev. Dixon. New teachers have recently been added and enrollment is good. The S. S. sent six children to Junior Camp last summer, and plans to do the same next summer.

A. L. Jennings, of Jackson Heights, N. Y. City, came Saturday by plane to Chicago, and visited at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin until Monday when he returned to Chicago to attend a convention in the interests of his company.

Mrs. Helen Fish entertained the Mother-Daughter club at a party at her home last Wednesday—it was also a shower for Mrs. Charlotte Wagner.

If you have items of interests to the public, please call 3344 Lake Villa, and we will be glad to send them in.

Use of oxygen for industrial purposes by the application of some German ideas and developments in this country in a project carried out during World War II, has made it possible to build oxygen plants at low cost. The oxygen is not as pure as the laboratory product, but has been found suitable for industrial purposes. Costing up to $70 a ton before the war, oxygen can now be manufactured at a cost of from $8 to $10 a ton.

METHODIST TO CELEBRATE WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY

Joining with millions of fellow Christians throughout the world, members of the Antioch Methodist Church will celebrate World Communion Sunday at the morning worship hour this Sunday at 11: a. m. This is the eighth consecutive year of the observance throughout the world. Rev. Tuttle, pastor of the local church, pointed out that never was a sense of unbroken fellowship with other Christians more necessary than now. To express tangibly this Christian bond, those attending the service may leave a special offering at the communion table to be used for the work of overseas relief and the Methodist chaplaincy. Recently an overseas relief chest has been placed in the vestibule of the church where people may leave clothing, shoes and bedding for shipment to needy parts of the world. The usual nursery for young children will be maintained during the worship service.

Young people of the newly formed Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at the church. A scavenger hunt will be conducted under the direction of Verna Kufak. Young people are asked to bring sack lunches. The evening meeting will be conducted on the theme, "The MYF—What Is It?" A number of the young people will take part in this special service. Sunday School Supt. Selected.

Mr. Bernard Guillaume of Antioch has recently been selected as the new Sunday School Superintendent of the Methodist Church. Mr. Guillaume in his new capacity will direct the Crusade for Christ emphasis of the Methodist Church on increasing Sunday School enrollment. The local church has set a goal of 42% increase for its Sunday school which will bring the total enrollment over 200.

Geography of Venezuela
Venezuela is the only country in South America lying entirely north of the Equator, and the sixth country in size on that continent. An unusual setting of mountain systems breaks Venezuela into four distinct areas. The climate is tropical except where modified by altitude; it approaches the mild temperature in the higher western mountains. Most rainfall occurs between April and October, the rest of the year is dry.

Fertilizing Lapedeza
Phosphate and potash applications on lapedeza should be repeated every two or three years and lime when needed. Fertilizers applied directly to lapedeza when sown or volunteering gives best results.

Corn Experimentation
In the 30 years that the department of agriculture has been experimenting with corn hybrids, it has spent five million dollars of the taxpayers' money, and it is estimated that the states have spent about the same amount. From this 10 million dollars, farmers of the nation are now getting 750 million dollars every year out of higher yields and better grain from corn hybrids.

Am. Legion Auxiliary Starts Membership Campaign for 1948

Twenty-five per cent increase over this year's record membership will be the goal of Antioch Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary in a campaign for enrollment of 1948 members, to start October 20th, Mrs. L. R. Van Patten, Unit President, announced today.

The campaign will be directed by Mrs. Lucy Himmens, Membership Chairman, and will continue through November 11th, Armistice Day. All present Auxiliary members will be asked to renew their membership during this time and an invitation to come into the organization will be extended to all eligible women in the city.

"Rapid expansion of American Legion Auxiliary activities since the war calls for a continued increase in our membership," said Mrs. Van Patten. "There is so much to be done for the disabled veterans, their families, and for the needy children of veterans that we must have more members to do it. Our influence is an important factor in The American Legion's legislative activities, its Americanism work and its efforts for national security. The bigger we are the more we can help."

While the chief program of the American Legion Auxiliary is service to the disabled men of World War I and II and their families, The Auxiliary also includes among its interests Americanism, National Defense, Community Service, Pan American, Junior Activities, Illinois Girls State, the Veterans' Craft Shop, Training of Volunteer Hospital Workers and Music. The broad program of the Auxiliary offers a special interest to every woman and with the large increase in The American Legion membership it is expected that the 795 Units in Illinois will reach a membership of over 80,000 this year.

"More than 900,000 women are enrolled in the national organization this year and we confidently expect this figure to pass 1,000,000 in 1948. Such an organization, teamed with the American Legion's 3,000,000 members, can accomplish really important things for the veterans and their families, and for the progress and security of the nation. Every additional member adds to the Auxiliary's power to serve with the Legion for America."

Eligible women include wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of American Legion members and of men who died during the world wars or since discharge from war service, Mrs. Van Patten explained. Women who themselves were enrolled in the armed forces in either war are eligible to both the Legion and Auxiliary. "Americans must remain united to meet the challenge of today's conditions," says Lucy Himmens, Membership chairman of Antioch Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary. Urging enrollment of all eligible women, Mrs. Himmens said:

"The victory of two years ago came because Americans had united their strength for service to country. The same united effort is needed to solve the many problems growing out of the conflict and to make sure that the freedom so well defended in war is not lost in time of peace."

"Women of veterans' families, especially, need to be united for peace-time service. In an organization like the American Legion Auxiliary there is much they can do to improve the lot of the disabled veteran and the families of the dead and disabled. In the Auxiliary they can make their voices heard in behalf of security measures to protect America's peace, and against the threat of communism to American liberty."

Cashier Admits $100,000 Theft; Money All Gone

Bank Official Tripped Up by Vacation; Embezzling Made a Fine Art.

BALTIMORE.—The story of how a 44-year-old bank cashier turned embezzling into a fine art, was told here by the FBI.

The FBI operator said that Hughlett A. Golt of Dover, Del., managed to make away with close to $100,000 over a period of 18 years, and it was only while away on vacation that he was found out.

But Golt admitted sadly that he hasn't a single penny to show for his 18-year stretch of till-tapping.

Golt is the father of three children and long respected as assistant cashier of the Farmers Bank of Dover.

Federal agents seized him as he returned from his vacation. They said he readily confessed to having stolen the exact sum of $95,991.23 between 1927 and 1945.

Played Market.

FBI agents quoted the middle-aged bank employee as saying it all started when he began playing the stock market and lost.

He had to embezzle more to cover his earlier shortages, he said. Finally he broke the embezzling habit two years ago but it was too late—the damage was done.

During his recent vacation a depositor came to the bank to have an interest entry made on his bank book. All of the bank's records for the customer were missing from the files.

Bank officials called in the bank examiners and the FBI who uncovered the amazing 18-year record of the assistant cashier.

How He Worked It.

FBI agents found that when Golt accepted deposits from customers, he often pocketed the money as well as the deposit tickets. Then he would manipulate the bank's records by posting the deposits to the customer's account after hours.

He said he hid the customers' ledger cards whenever he heard the auditors were coming.

Golt also admitted taking some of the money from cash drawers of other tellers. He pocketed both the money and the deposit tickets taken by the tellers.

Sometimes he took as little as $190 at one time. Again he took as much as $1,600.

Besides the stock market deals, he said, he bought himself a boat and a new car, and had his home repaired. The money has all been spent.

Maniac in Cleric's Garb Flees From Insane Asylum

LONDON.—A maniacal stranger, believed to be dressed as a clergyman but carrying seven other disguises with him, escaped from the Broadmoor criminal lunatic asylum. The madman, 37-year-old John Lapsien, had been a model inmate for 10 years and had gained privileges which made his escape easy, authorities said.

He is believed to have scaled the asylum's 16-foot wall with the aid of a stepladder, wearing the clerical clothes and carrying other costumes in a suitcase along with 102 pounds ($48) stolen from the cashbox.

Lapsien, a star performer in the asylum's amateur dramatic society, was believed to have looted the club's wardrobe.

He was believed to be heading for the home of Mrs. Kathleen Woodward at Burford, in Oxfordshire, where Lapsien also formerly lived.

He was found guilty in 1937 of strangling Mrs. Woodward's 17-month-old child.

At the trial he charged Mrs. Woodward murdered the child because "she is in love with me."

Four Boys Swept a Mile Down a Sewer to River

PITTSBURGH.—Four teen-age boys, after a terrifying, mile-long trip through a storm-swollen sewer, said they'd "keep on praying" because their lives were spared.

"We had no idea where the sewer would end but we sure prayed for daylight," declared William Dorrity, 14.

The boys took refuge in a culvert after a torrential rain struck. An almost solid wall of water hit them. Clinging together, struggling to keep their heads above the water, the boys were swept the entire length of the sewer and out into a creek, where a railroad worker helped them to safety.

Light Boomerang

Many Greek thinkers believed that in seeing some kind of rays were emitted by the eyes. Empedocles, a Greek savant, who lived about 500 B. C. thought that rays left the eye, hit an object, and like a boomerang bounced back to the eye to produce vision.

Brilliant Chicago Horse Show This Week-end to Draw Many From County

The next eight days will be intensely busy ones in readying the spectacular Chicago Horse Show for its gala opening a week from Friday night, (Oct. 3) at the 234 E. Chicago Ave., armory, where it will continue through October 12, with competition each evening and matinees each Saturday and Sunday.

Entries have passed the 1,500 mark, and A. P. Fleming, general manager, reported that horses valued at $3,000,000 will battle it out in the ring for the $60,000 in cash awards and trophies.

Admirers of fine horseflesh from this area will make the armory their headquarters during the 10-day run of the show. They will be well rewarded as they view in action the greatest gaited, harness, hackney, roadster, hunter, jumper, Palomino, western and Tennessee walking horses of the United States and Canada.

The major event among the 119 to be contested will be the $10,000 world's five-gaited championship. The procedure in settling this title will be to qualify the first four place winners in the mare, gelding and stallion divisions for the final round. Last year's winner was The Invasion, a gelding owned by Thomas A. Walsh, Jr. of Omaha, Neb.

Among the famed defending champions will be Wensleydale, Pilot, owned by John F. Cuneo's Hawthorn Farm of Libertyville, considered by many experts as the greatest harness horse of all time. Imported from England, the Pilot is a three-time winner of the $2,000 harness horse championship at the show. Killarney Beauty, owned by Argyll Stables of Mount Carroll, is regarded as one of the Pilot's most formidable rivals.

Another defending champion will be Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson's King's Commando from Rochester, Mich., winner of the $2,000 harness pony title at the 1946 show.

In addition to its large seating capacity of more than 4,500, the armory has an advantage in its ideal layout whereby spectators will enter from the west end of the building and the horses up ramps leading to the ring at the east end, a feature of convenience and safety for the public.

The agriculture exhibit will include vegetables, fruits, and rabbits, but no poultry. The 4-H clubs will have their fall show, displaying late potatoes, small grains, honey products, tractor maintenance, soil improvement, forestry, wild life conservation, farm electrical uses, and concrete.

The grade schools will exhibit their work and contest for poster prizes.

Aiding Mrs. Gray on the program are Jesse Allen, secretary; Mrs. Helen Volk, executive secretary; James Weber, treasurer; Mrs. O. Bicknase, director of home economics, and Miss Elaine Shiner, secretary of home economics.

Antioch F. F. A. Boys Sell Show Hogs at Top Market Price in Chicago

Two Antioch boys made history recently when they sold fat market hogs at the Chicago Junior Market Hog Show and Sale. The sales were made at the time the market was at its all-time high.

Donald Irving, a graduate of Antioch High school and now farming with his father, McAllister Irvin, sold three barrows weighing 615 lbs. at 30 cents per lb. The barrows were of the registered Hampshire breed.

Jack Heick, a sophomore and Future Farmer member of the Antioch High school sold three Hampshire barrows weighing 550 lbs. at 29 1/2 cents per lb.

The two boys were accompanied to the Show and Sale by their instructor, C. L. Kuttel and Logan Lundgren, a senior student of the school.

German Reveals Ruse Employed In Duce Escape

Hellen Merchant Involved in Clever Plot, Says Giant
Paratrooper.

DACHAU, GERMANY.—According to a story told here three years after the death of Mussolini, a romantic Italian merchant who thought he was only playing Cupid, helped Hitler rescue Mussolini. The story came from the prison cell of S.S. Lt. Col. Otto Skorzeny, giant paratrooper, whose feats made him the most publicized German soldier of the war. Skorzeny wrote a 42-page account of his abduction of Il Duce on Hitler's orders.

Meeting the press in advance of his trial on charges of violating the laws of war, Skorzeny also denied he had ever tried to kidnap General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower. But he said he snatched Hungary's Adm. Nicholas Horthy from the advancing Russians.

Skorzeny's personal account of his capture of Mussolini after a crash glider landing high in the Apennines is a lurid tale of derring-do.

"He (Hitler) informed me," said Skorzeny, "that he was firmly resolved not to leave his friend, Mussolini, in the lurch and to prevent under all circumstances his extradition to the Allies. Mussolini was for him not only an ally but he also called him his one and only great friend, 'the last of the ancient Romans of the Caesarian tradition.'"

Searched Four Months.

Under Gen. Kurt Student, the S.S. colonel said, he set out with a staff of five to find the Duce, well-hidden by the Badoglio government. Skorzeny scoured Italy for four months. In September, he heard Mussolini might be held in the Apennines near Gran Sasso. He spoke to an Italian merchant:

"I invented a girl friend from Rome who had fled in fear of Allied bomb attacks and begged him to help me send her a love letter. The Italian informed me that the Gran Sasso valley was entirely cordoned off and that the resort hotel evicted its personnel and the only way of access was out of bounds to all traffic."

The man, still anxious to try to deliver the "love letter," reported to Skorzeny later a rumor that all the secrecy had something to do with Mussolini.

Skorzeny prepared 12 gliders, each with nine men, and took off for the 6,000-foot aerie. The first two crashed almost as soon as they took off.

Behind a cloud bank the others dived on the mountain. Skorzeny landed 50 feet from the hotel. The Italian guards were too surprised to act, and "the hotel was surrounded without resistance."

"I reported to Mussolini: 'Duce, the Fuehrer has sent me as a token of his loyal friendship.' Mussolini embraced me and assured that he had daily expected his extradition to the Allies but that he would have put an end to his life beforehand."

Some Confusion.

Skorzeny decided to take off from an improvised field in a Storch plane, built for one or two passengers.

"We almost reached the brink of a cliff when a ditch suddenly cut straight across our path. We hopped over the ditch and coasted over the brink. After a drop of perhaps 1,000 feet the pilot succeeded in gaining control. The plane flew over the valley just above the ground."

In Patrica de Mare, they transferred to Luftwaffe transports and flew to Vienna, thence to Hitler's headquarters.

Skorzeny went on trial with eight of his fellow S.S. men charged with using American uniforms in efforts to spread confusion behind the Allied front lines. He says he never did that mission—that his only mission was to charge through retreating U.S. troops in order to blast the bridges across the Meuse and cut off escape.

In the wild confusion of the Ardennes "bulge" all sorts of rumors about Skorzeny's corps cropped up, including the story that he aimed for General Eisenhower's personal headquarters.

"We never got close enough even to consider it," he said wryly.

Antioch Entertains District Meeting of The American Legion

New district officers of Lake County's American Legion assumed their duties for the first time in the district meeting held in Antioch Friday, Sept. 19.

The meeting attended by 150 Legionnaires, was preceded by a short parade which formed at the Antioch grade school to march to the Legion home. Headed by the North Chicago drum and bugle corps, parade participants included the Antioch drum and bugle corps, 40 & 8 engine, Fox Lake comic auto, Jerry A. Havelka, the Legion's "original" one man drum and bugle corps, and 65 county Legionnaires marching as a body.

Principal speakers at the meeting were Gerald Fitch, assistant contact officer of the Veterans administration for this regional area, and Ray Gunther, contact supervisor, who discussed current regional activities of the VA.

Bowen Gets Pin

In addition to Commander Dowden, new district officers who officiated were Fred Schusted, senior vice commander; Everett Hatfield, junior vice commander; Charles Whiteleather, finance officer; Henry Hansen, chaplain; William Roser, adjutant; Harry Keefe, sergeant at arms, and Noel E. ### New Cottonseed Pigments

Eleven new pigments have been discovered in cottonseed, which was believed to contain only one. Certain toxic properties of cottonseed that have always been attributed to that one—gossypol—may turn out to be due to some of these other pigments. It is plain now that the blue-black and red-black discoloration observed in cottonseed meats and oils is caused by some of the 11 rather than by the light-yellow gossypol. Three of the new pigments have been isolated and are purple, blue, and orange.
